400 Robins Roost Early in N. Va.

FALLS CHURCH — Easily the "Grand Champion First-Robin-of-Spring Bird Watcher" is C. L. T. Edwards, a retired steel blast-furnace manager here.

He watched more than 400 for several hours today.

Mr. Edwards, who lives at 1421 Leesburg Pike and has a four acre back-yard, told The SUN today he and his wife and neighbors were mildly shocked at dawn today to find "a huge swarm" of the redbreasted creatures milling about and scratching grimly at the hard earth in a futile hunt for worms.
